

Date: 11/5/19

Effective Date: 11/12/19

Title: Transfusion Card update

Explanation of change: Transfusion Card which accompanies blood products has been updated.

	Old Transfusion Card	New Transfusion Card
Appearance		Different format, easier to read, same information as old
Number of copies	Three copies-white,yellow and pink	Two copies-white and yellow
When product is issued	White (top copy) stays in Blood Bank	Entire Transfusion card stays with blood product
Issue Unit Information	Needs to be completed when product is issued	No change
Transfusion Checklist- (Outside patient room and bedside)	Must be initialed by two nurses, and signed before starting transfusion	No change
During Transfusion	Document vitals	No change
End of transfusion	Complete form and send yellow copy to Blood bank, pink to patient chart	Complete form, send white copy to Blood Bank, put yellow copy on patient chart
Clinical Manifestations requiring Transfusion Reaction Workup	Listed on back of card	Listed on back of card, updated to be concise

Dr. Daniel Sudilovsky, Laboratory Medical Director

Date

11/6/19

Toni Burger, Laboratory Administrative Director

Date

11-6-19